

Oregon ODP Hall of Fame

*The Oregon ODP Hall of Fame is made up of the top players and coaches who have been involved in Oregon ODP over the last 20 years. The ODP staff votes each year to add new players and coaches to the list. The list below is made up of players and coaches who have represented the program at the highest level. On behalf of the Oregon ODP staff, we congratulate players and coaches below.

Jimmy Conway-Coached and directed Oregon ODP for more than 25 years and was responsible for the expansion of Oregon Youth Soccer Association.

Clive Charles-Former Portland Timber, US Women's National Team Coach, University of Portland head coach and Oregon ODP staff coach.

Nate Jaqua-Current Seattle Sounder of the MLS; played college soccer at University of Portland; played on U18, U20 and U23 US national teams.

Chad Barrett-Current MLS player with Toronto, played college ball at UCLA, played with U-20, U-23 and US National team.

Alex Nimo-Current U-20 National team player; drafted by Real Salt Lake of MLS out of high school, current Portland Timber.

Danny Mwanga-First pick of the 2009 Major League Soccer draft by Philadelphia, all-conference at Oregon State his freshman year.

Courtney Verloo-Current US National team player, played in U17 World Cup for US and was second leading scorer, current player at Stanford University

Marissa Abegg-Former U-17 National team player and graduated from Stanford University.