

Portland Adventist Academy (PAA), a Christian high school with a competitive soccer program, is seeking a qualified coach to fill its head boys' coaching vacancy.

This position offers the right person the opportunity to be a part of an exciting, growing program. PAA boys' soccer team has consistently finished in the top third of their district and was a contender in the state tournament the past two years.

A qualified candidate will have the ability to provide instruction that will lead to the formulation of character including high moral values, pride of accomplishment, acceptable social behavior, self-discipline and self-confidence.

Key responsibilities include:

- managing the program; which includes assistant coaches, practice schedule, retreats, league meetings, etc.
- instructing players in the fundamental skills of soccer
- integrating a strategy and physical training system necessary for players to realize a high degree of individual and team success
- modeling moral values, positive sportsmanship and personal integrity
- working with Athletic Director and other school staff and administration in the implementation of a quality program
- assisting with transportation of players to and from games in school supplied bus

Applicants must:

- be certified through NFHS coaches education program "Fundamentals of Coaching" or willing to obtain certification
- Complete and pass a background check

Application review begins immediately and remains open until the vacancy is filled. Submit letter of interest and resume to: Portland Adventist Academy, Attention: Lance Judd, 1500 SE 96th Avenue, Portland, Oregon 97216 or email to ljudd@paasda.org
